CONTEXT

Digital Health and Care Wales is a new and ambitious organisation. Created by Welsh Government to lead on the digital transformation of health and care across Wales, providing digital-first service model for the 21st century. Large-scale developments that will make a significant difference to the people of Wales include expansion of the digital patient record and Wales leading the way by creating an innovative national data resource, improving the way data is collected, shared and used.

This new organisation builds on the digital architecture and national services put in place by the NHS Wales Informatics Service over the past decade and recognises the vital role of digital and data in modern care. By 2025, Digital Health and Care Wales aims to become an international exemplar for the digitisation of health and care.

Our values are:

- We LEARN from our colleagues through the sharing of knowledge and experience to continually improve our service
- We take PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY for what we do, being honest with ourselves and others

- We CARE about the people we support and those we work with
- We RESPECT and treat everyone in the way that we would wish to be treated
- We act with INTEGRITY to build trust
- We are PROUD to be part of NHS Wales and our achievements

Job Summary/Job Purpose:

To develop skills, knowledge and capability across the range of Learning & Organisational Development services, to provide an efficient and high standard of data, information and administration support to the Learning & Organisational Development function.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

Include those relevant to the post requirements

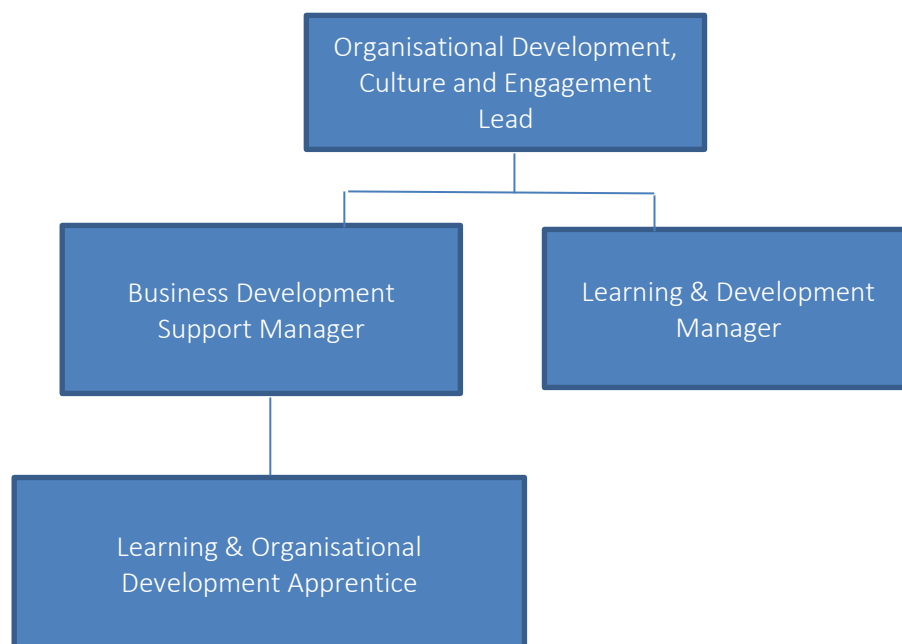

- Values: All employees of the Health Board are required to demonstrate and embed the Values and Behaviour Statements in order for them to become an integral part of the post holder's working life and to embed the principles into the culture of the organisation.
- Registered Health Professional: All employees who are required to register with a professional body, to enable them to practice within their profession, are required to comply with their code of conduct and requirements of their professional registration.
- Healthcare Support Workers: Healthcare Support Workers make a valuable and important contribution to the delivery of high quality healthcare. The national Code of Conduct for NHS Wales describes the standards of conduct, behaviour and attitude required of all Healthcare Support Workers employed within NHS Wales. Health Care Support Workers are responsible, and have a duty of care, to ensure their conduct does not fall below the standards detailed in the Code and that no act or omission on their part harms the safety and wellbeing of service users and the public, whilst in their care.
- Competence: At no time should the post holder work outside their defined level of competence. If there are concerns regarding this, the post holder should immediately discuss them with their Manager/Supervisor. Employees have a responsibility to inform their Manager/Supervisor if they doubt their own competence to perform a duty.
- Learning and Development: All staff must undertake induction/orientation programmes at Corporate and Departmental level and must ensure that any statutory/mandatory training requirements are current and up to date. Where considered appropriate, staff are required to demonstrate evidence of continuing professional development.
- Performance Appraisal: We are committed to developing our staff and you are responsible for participating in an Annual Performance Development Review of the post.
- Health & Safety: All employees of the organisation have a statutory duty of care for their own personal safety and that of others who may be affected by their acts or omissions. The post holder is required to co-operate with management to enable the organisation to meet its own legal duties and to report any hazardous situations or defective equipment. The post holder must adhere to the organisation's Risk Management, Health, Safety, and associate policies.

- Risk Management: It is a standard element of the role and responsibility of all staff of the organisation that they fulfil a proactive role towards the management of risk in all of their actions. This entails the risk assessment of all situations, the taking of appropriate actions and reporting of all incidents, near misses and hazards.
- Welsh Language: All employees must perform their duties in strict compliance with the requirements of their organization's Welsh Language Scheme and take every opportunity to promote the Welsh language in their dealings with the public.
- Information Governance: The post holder must at all times be aware of the importance of maintaining confidentiality and security of information gained during the course of their duties. This will in many cases include access to personal information relating to service users.
- Data Protection Legislation: The post holder must treat all information, whether corporate, staff or patient information, in a discreet and confidential manner in accordance with the provisions of the current Data Protection legislation and Organisational Policy. Any breach of such confidentiality is considered a serious disciplinary offence, which is liable to dismissal and / or prosecution under current statutory legislation (Data Protection) and the HB/Trust Disciplinary Policy.
- Quality: NHS Wales Informatics Service is committed to delivering the highest quality IT systems and services to the NHS in Wales. Our aim is to be recognised by our customers as a centre of expertise and innovation in the provision and operations of specialist IT, Information and Support Services. The post holder is responsible for supporting this aim by working to, and continually improving, the organisation's Integrated Management System Quality Standard that aligns professional and IT best practice.
- Records Management: As an employee of this organisation, the post holder is legally responsible for all records that they gather, create or use as part of their work within the organisation (including patient health, staff health or injury, financial, personal and administrative), whether paper based or on computer. All such records are considered public records and the post holder has a legal duty of confidence to service users (even after an employee has left the organisation). The post holder should consult their manager if they have any doubt as to the correct management of records with which they work.
- Equality and Human Rights: The Public Sector Equality Duty in Wales places a positive duty on the HB to promote equality for people with protected characteristics, both as an employer and as a provider of public services. There are nine protected characteristics: age; disability; gender reassignment; marriage and civil partnership; pregnancy and maternity; race; religion or belief; sex and sexual orientation. The HB is committed to ensuring that no job applicant or employee receives less favour-able treatment of any of the above grounds. To this end, the organisation has an Equality Policy and it is for each employee to contribute to its success.

- Dignity at Work: The organisation condemns all forms of bullying and harassment and is actively seeking to promote a workplace where employees are treated fairly and with dignity and respect. All staff are requested to report and form of bullying and harassment to their Line Manager or to any Director of the organisation. Any inappropriate behaviour inside the workplace will not be tolerated and will be treated as a serious matter under the HB/Trust Disciplinary Policy.
- DBS Disclosure Check:
The post holder does not require a DBS Disclosure Check. *Delete as appropriate.
- Safeguarding Children and Vulnerable Adults: The organisation is committed to safeguarding children and vulnerable adults. All staff must therefore attend Safeguarding Children training and be aware of their responsibility under the Adult Protection Policy.
- Infection Control: The organisation is committed to meet its obligations to minimise infections.
All staff are responsible for protecting and safeguarding patients, service users, visitors and employees against the risk of acquiring healthcare associated infections. This responsibility includes being aware of the content of and consistently observing Health Board Infection Prevention & Control Policies and Procedures.
- No Smoking: To give all patients, visitors and staff the best chance to be healthy, all Health Board sites, including buildings and grounds, are smoke free.
- Flexibility Statement: The duties of the post are outlined in this Job Description and Person Specification and may be changed by mutual agreement from time to time.
