

4ydd Ionawr 2019 / 4th January 2019

News Article: Well "truly sorry" after leaking personal data of 24000 employees
Well Pharmacy has informed the Information Commissioner's Officer after the personal data of over 24,000 employees and locums was leaked accidentally as an email attachment.

News Article: Government rules out exempting GPs from GDPR Subject Access Requests
It has been decided that GPs will not be given the right to charge patients for Subject Access Requests despite a large rise in time consuming requests.

ICO News: Information Commissioner awarded CBE in Queen's New Year's Honours List
The Information Commissioner Elizabeth Denham, was awarded a CBE from the Queens in the New Year's Honours list for her work in the fields of data privacy and information rights.

News Article: Royal Manchester Eye Hospital patient heard other patient's messages
A patient who tried to change an appointment at the hospital instead heard a number of voicemail messages with personal information left by other patients. Manchester University NHS Foundation Trust has apologised is investigating.
[Relates to England]

News Article: Child health record "red book" to go online
NHS England will be making the "red book" containing a child's medical records available online to parents as part of a move to improve NHS care for mothers and babies.
[Relates to England]

Am rhagor o ddiweddaridau ynglyn â Diogelu data ewch i wefan Swyddfa Comisiynwdd Gwybodaeth. Cliciwch yma.

For updates on the ICO's Guide to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) [click here \[link\]](#).