News Article: Two years later, has GDPR fulfilled its promise?

Has the landmark law, which came into affect on 25th May 2018, helped build a culture of privacy in organisations and have individuals become more wary of sharing their personal data?

News Article: Protecting your employees' personal data during COVID-19

With businesses returning to work and an office setting, employers have obligations to ensure the health and safety of employees while at work. Employers may begin processing more health information about employees than was done pre COVID-19 and will need to ensure any information processed is done so in line with data protection legislation.

News Article: EDPB challenges Hungary's GDPR suspension under Article 23

Under Article 23 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the Hungarian government issued a decree suspending Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR until the end of the country's coronavirus pandemic state of emergency. However, the European Data Protection Board have now issued a statement their restriction of data subject rights.
