

9^{fed} O Awst / 9th August 2019

News Article: NHS-Alexa partnership 'data protection disaster waiting to happen'
Health data will feed into Amazon's voice assistant but concerns mount over the fate of patient recordings.

News Article: Organisations' Understanding of Data not Greatly Improved by GDPR
The introduction of GDPR has not yet led to a substantial improvement in organisations' understanding of their data according to a recent poll.

ICO News: Blog: Protecting children online: update on progress of ICO code
The ICO provide an update on their work to help protect children online including producing a code that will translate GDPR requirements into design standards for online services.

ICO News: ICO joins international signatories in raising Libra data protection concerns
The ICO has joined data protection authorities from around the world in calling for more openness about the proposed Libra digital currency and infrastructure.

News Article: Researcher uses GDPR data transparency clause to obtain users' sensitive information
A student at University's Cybersecurity Centre for Doctoral Training discovered how the GDPR's 'right of access' clause can be leveraged to compel organisations to serve up the personally identifiable information of their customers.

News Article: Microsoft workers 'listen' to some translated Skype calls
Microsoft workers occasionally listen to real Skype conversations that have been processed by translation software, it has been revealed.

Am rhagor o ddiweddaridau ynglyn â Diogelu data ewch i wefan Swyddfa Comisiynwdd Gwybodaeth. Cliciwch yma.

For updates on the ICO's Guide to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) [click here \[link\]](#).