

17eg O Ionawr / 17th January 2020

News Article: App data sharing sparks Grindr complaint
Dating apps and similar services are sharing sensitive data without consent despite the General Data Protection Regulation, according to a new study.

News Article: One billion medical images are exposed online
Due to poor security protocols, many medical facilities around the World are reportedly allowing medical images and patient sensitive information to be exposed online.

News Article: 'Huge' data leak exposes British consultancy firms and thousands of consultants
Leaky servers exposed a wealth of personal and financial data held by British consultancy firms as well as thousands of professionals, ranging from expenses forms to personal names and addresses.

News Article: 'National security' can't be used as an excuse to bypass privacy laws
EU member states might no longer be able to cite national security concerns as the basis for flouting data protection and privacy laws in the bulk collection of personal data, according to a preliminary legal judgement.

News Article: Google's announced timeline for new privacy policy
Google has announced a timeline for implementing new privacy standards that will limit third-party use of a digital tool known as cookies.

*Am rhagor o ddiweddaridau ynglyn â Diogelu data ewch i wefan Swyddfa Comisiynwdd Gwybodaeth.
Cliciwch yma.*

For updates on the ICO's Guide to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) [click here \[link\]](#).