23ain O Awst / 23rd August 2019

News Article: Poor hospital records 'could cost lives' in Blackpool
Medics had been unable to learn lessons from deaths in Blackpool because paperwork was lost, incomplete or illegible.

News Article: Are health app firms being transparent surrounding the use of personal data?
A recent study published by the British Medical Journal has warned that many health apps may be selling and sharing personal data without the user's knowledge.

News Article: Google: 1.5% of all login attempts use compromised passwords
Figures from Google's recently released Password Checkup extension have revealed 1.5% of sign-in attempts are being made using details that have been compromised in data breaches.

ICO Blog: Data minimisation and privacy-preserving techniques in AI systems
The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) outline some of the techniques organisations can use to comply with data minimisation requirements when adopting Artificial Intelligence (AI) systems.

News Article: Microsoft halts listening in to Xbox gamers
Microsoft has said that it will stop listening in to Xbox users, saying it was "no longer necessary".

News Article: Manchester City urged to drop facial recognition idea
Human rights groups have warned Manchester City football club against introducing facial recognition technology over fears of "normalising a mass surveillance tool".

Am rhagor o ddiweddaridau ynglyn â Diogelu data ewch i wefan Swyddfa Comisiynwdd Gwybodaeth. Cliciwch yma.

For updates on the ICO's Guide to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) click here [link].

GIG CYMRU NHS WALES | Gwasanaeth Gwybodeg Informatics Service

Angerddol am wneud gwahaniaeth
Darparu gwybodaeth a thechnoleg ar gyfer gofal gwell

Passionate about making a difference
Delivering information and technology for better care